Faculty of Management

Faculty of Management is a higher education institution for education and research in the fields of social sciences and business management. In addition to education and research, the basic activities of the faculty are providing consultancy to companies and other organisations, publishing and organisation of international conferences.

Faculty of Management was established in 1995 as a freestanding institution. In 2003 it became one of the founding members of the University of Primorska.

The Faculty of Management is committed to lifelong learning. We believe that in today's world knowledge has become the most valuable asset, which needs to be constantly developed and upgraded. Business ethics, corporate social responsibility and social entrepreneurship are the core elements of teaching and research.

We are connected to more than 90 educational and research institutions in Europe and worldwide. Yearly we host about 100 mobility students and numerous teachers from our partner institutions. Additionally we successfully cooperate thru research projects, summer schools and international conferences.

Faculty of Management offers a variety of study opportunities:

- 2 undergraduate programmes in management – first cycle
- 3 master programmes in management, economy and finance, and law – second cycle
- 1 interdisciplinary master program in sustainable development – second cycle
- 1 doctoral programme in management – third cycle

Beside the study programs leading to a degree the Faculty also offers:

- Modules for groups or in-company training from the field of social sciences and business management with interdisciplinary links to economic, business, legal, organizational and behavioural sciences
- International Summer Schools
- Courses for individuals as part of Life Long Learning

Faculty of Management Press publishes international journals and monographs in the fields of management and economics.

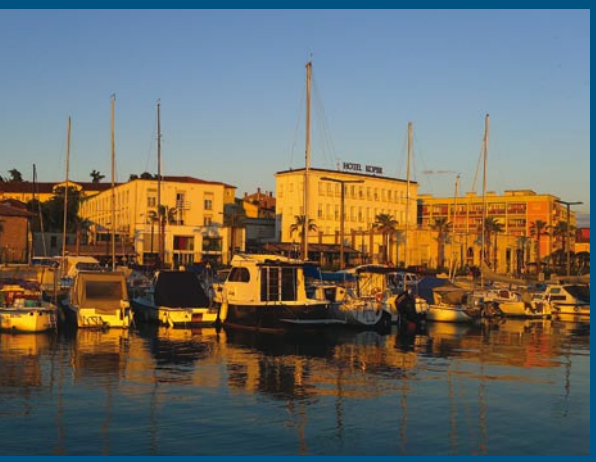
Where the Alps meet the Mediterranean



Faculty of Management is situated in Koper, an ancient Mediterranean town at the crossroads between Central and Southern Europe. Located in the North-Eastern part of the Adriatic, Koper offers a Mediterranean climate with mild winters and warm and dry summers. It is a university town with a rich general library and several specialised libraries, theatre, museums and galleries. Littered with charming narrow streets and seaside cafes, Koper is a unique place for study.

Koper is also an important economic centre and one of the most modern and largest cargo ports in this part of the world. It is only a few hours drive from several international airports and it is easily accessible by all means of transport.
